(DONALD FRANKLIN) &
WHEELER (LEROY)

Motion denied

Appellant Stanley Bryant's "Renewed Application for an Expedited Order Allowing Counsel to View the Entire Record on Appeal, Including Indices, Envelopes and/or Cover Pages of Sealed Materials, and to Inspect and Copy Sealed and Confidential Documents Pertaining to Mr. Bryant," filed on August 3, 2011, is denied, as follows. The request for appellant Bryant's habeas corpus counsel to inspect the indices of the sealed materials is denied. Copies of all of the indices have been provided to appellant.

The request for counsel to inspect the "envelopes and/or cover pages" of the sealed materials is denied. Counsel has not made the requisite showing that they are entitled to access to these materials under the applicable Rules of Court. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rules 8.46(b)(1) & (2), (f).)

The request for counsel to inspect and copy “all of the substantive materials sealed for the benefit of” appellant Bryant is denied. The request does not identify what specific materials in the record - which contains materials sealed for the benefit of several different parties - are proposed to be unsealed as to appellant Bryant’s habeas corpus counsel and why such limited unsealing of those materials would be proper. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rules 8.46(c)(1) [providing that “[i]f a record sealed by the trial court is part of the record on appeal . . . [t]he sealed record must be filed under seal in the reviewing court and remain sealed unless that court orders otherwise”], 8.46(f) [providing procedures for the unsealing of materials upon motion by the interested person or entity, including limited unsealing to only certain persons].) If habeas corpus counsel wish to confirm the completeness of the copy of the record they have been provided, counsel must make use of the available resources - such as the publicly filed reporter’s and clerk’s transcripts and any sealed materials appellant Bryant has already been provided, and consulting with appellant Bryant’s trial and appellate counsel and counsel for other parties to the case - in order to identify with specificity the sealed material in the record they wish to inspect and to justify such limited unsealing, in order to properly enable the court to rule on a request as required by the California Rules of Court.

Counsel are free to renew this motion at any time with a proper demonstration that specific materials contained in the record, to which counsel are entitled to access, were not included in the copy of the record that counsel have been provided.
